NEW FIND OF GAS IN WASHINGTON COUNTY

Pittsburg Plate Glass Company Struck Well This Morning.—Have Leased Over 8,000 Acres in one Block.

Washington, Pa., Oct. 18—Special—The Pittsburg Plate glass company has struck gas on the Robt. McQuillin farm this place which will be the means of opening up a new gas field. Several wells are now being put in and to the first signs of gas appeared The discovery was made this forenoon and all indications point toward another rich gas belt.

The company has leased eight thousand acres across through Salem and Loyalhanna townships and derricks are already up for other test wells in that section.

Officials of the company are rejoicing as they believe that the results of today will lead to the development of one of the most productive gas belts in the country.

TEAM WENT OVER HILL

A disastrous smash-up occurred at Eighth street this morning when a team driven by Ollie Marple, of the firm of A. Marple & Co., slid over the hill with the result that the horses were badly used up and the wagon and contents consisting of about $200 worth of groceries from the Johnson grocery of Ninth street and Knox avenue is almost an entire loss. The escape of young Marple from serious injury is almost miraculous.

Every woman in Monessen should use Hunyo of pure spices.

Gresneco Gubulgia, an Italian, was given a hearing before Squire James A. Watkins Tuesday evening on a serious charge preferred by a woman of his own nationality. Both reside in Monessen. Gubulgia was arrested Tuesday evening at one of the local mills, where he is employed, after an exciting chase. The officers experienced no end of trouble but finally landed their man. Gubulgia was held for court and in default of bail, was committed to jail.

Geo Gurber who was recently held for court by Squire Watkins under $500 bond for the alleged illegal sale of liquor was yesterday surrendered by his bondsman and was also committed to jail. Chief Woolsey took the prisoners to Greensburg yesterday morning.

NEVER was Monessen more prosperous than at the present time and never were our merchants more anxious to advertise and reccommend their stores to the public than at the present time. This is certainly a very gratifying condition and has a great influence in educating the people to trade at home. We recommend the patrons of this paper as being the leading merchants of the town and those who read the ads in the Daily will have reasons to believe that greater bargains can be obtained right in the home stores.

When suffering daily torture
From backache, rheumatic pain,
Any ill of kidneys or bladder,
Turn to Doan's Kidney Pills.
A cure endorsed by thousands.
Read an old man's tribute.

Sidney Justus, fruit dealer, of Mentor, Ohio, says: "I was cured by Doan's Kidney Pills of a severe case of kidney trouble of eight or ten years' standing. I suffered the most severe backache and other pains in the region of the kidneys. These were especially severe when stooping to lift anything, and often I could hardly straighten my back. The aching was bad in the daytime, but just as bad at night, and I was always lame in the morning. I was bothered with rheumatic pains and dropsical swelling of the feet. The urinary passages were painful, and the secretions were discolored and so free that often I had to rise at night. I felt tired all day. Half a box served to relieve me, and three boxes effected a permanent cure."

SIDNEY JUSTUS.

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mr. Justus will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Sold by all dealers; price, fifty cents per box.

Does Your Stomach Bother You?

Dr. Shoop's Restorative Cures All Distressing Stomach Troubles Through the Inside Nerves.

As you value your health and happiness don't neglect to care for the slightest stomach pain—don't let it go. At the first sign of distress use Dr Shoop's Restorative and end all these troubles. These aches are signals—they are symptoms of coming disease—is it wise to ignore them? You who never eat a hearty meal without a sense of fullness, followed by a period of lassitude or drowsiness—beware. Neglect these conditions and you surely invite distressing indigestion—you'll become a sallow, miserable dyspeptic. Do you experience any of these symptoms?—distress after eating, returning of food to mouth, gnawing at pit of stomach, rumbling of gas, belching of wind, loss of appetite, heartburn, headache, dizziness? If you suffer in any of these ways, your duty is clear—there is but one course open to you—strengthen the sick nerves—these special stomach nerves—shake off forever the evidence of disease. Put the digestive nerves in condition to act as nature intended they should. Don't drug, don't force—just give the inside nerves natural force, gentle tone, nature's help. Dr Shoop's Restorative (Tablets or Liquid) should be taken to do this. It is the only prescription which builds up or even attempts to restore the inside stomach nerves. Sold by

ROOSEVELT'S PRAISE OF LEGISLATURE AND NEW STATE CAPITOL

Pennsylvanians Everywhere Are Proud of Commendatory Words From the President.

STATE'S ADVANCED POSITION

Edwin S. Stuart, Republican Nominee For Governor, Quickly Disposed of a Democratic "Issue."

[Special Correspondence.]
Harrisburg, October 9.

Since the visit of President Roosevelt and his magnificent tribute to the Pennsylvania legislature and his most complimentary allusions to the beautiful state capitol, Republicans hereabouts have been in excellent spirits.

The president certainly gave high praise to the work of the Republican majority in the senate and house for the legislation passed at the recent extra session of the general assembly, which was called at the instance of a Republican governor, and of which President Roosevelt said:

"It is surely not too much to say that this body of substantive legislation marks an epoch in the history of the practical betterment of political conditions, not merely for your state, but for all our states. I do not recall any other state legislature which, in a similar length of time, has to its credit such a body of admirable legislation."

In leading up to this commendatory reference to the legislation enacted by Pennsylvania law-makers the president in referring in detail to the laws passed at that extra session said:

"I most heartily congratulate the people of the state of Pennsylvania upon what its government has accomplished during this present year. It is a remarkable record of achievement.

"Through your legislature you have abolished passes; you have placed the offices of the secretary of the commonwealth and the insurance commissioner upon an honorable and honest basis of salary only by abolishing the fee system; you have passed a law compelling the officers and employes of great cities to attend to the duties for which they are paid by all the taxpayers, and to refrain from using the power conferred by their offices to influence political campaigns; you have prohibited the solicitation or receiving political assessments by city employes; you have by law protected the state treasury from depredation and conserved the public moneys for use fluence political campaigns; you have by a law for the protection of the elective franchise made tampering with the ballot boxes and the casting of illegal votes so difficult as in all probability to be unprofitable; you have provided a primary election law which guarantees to the voters free expression in the selection of candidates for office; you have by law regulated and improved the civil service systems of your greatest cities; and, finally, you have passed a law containing a provision which I most earnestly hope will in substance be embodied likewise in a law by the congress at the coming session—a provision prohibiting the officers of any corporation from making a contribution of the money of that corporation to any candidate or any political committee for the payment of any election expenses whatever."

President Praises Capitol.

Possibly the president's reference to the new state capitol has been the subject of greatest gratification here.

"Governor," said President Roosevelt, in addressing Governor Pennypacker, "this is the finest state capitol I ever saw."

Looking in admiration upon the splendid structure, examining in detail its magnificent furnishings, praising its architectural beauty, and its grand proportions, the president was most enthusiastic in his comments.

Every one who has seen the new capitol cannot but speak in the highest terms of praise of the character of the workmanship and the materials employed in its construction

It is a source of satisfaction to the taxpayers of the state to know that every dollar expended upon the building and its furnishings was collected in taxes levied upon corporations. Not a penny was contributed from any other method of taxation.

Attempts are being made to manufacture campaign material for the Emery Democratic state campaign by insinuations that there has been extravagence in the furnishing of the building, but every citizen of Pennsylvania has been assured that this matter will be thoroughly investigated and every item examined into.

Stuart Meets "An Issue."

Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican nominee for governor, was the first to meet this issue. He had no hand in the work of erecting or furnishing the building, but he has made quite clear the course he will pursue when he shall be elected governor.

Upon this subject Mr. Stuart has made this prepared statement:

"It has been said that we have constructed the finest capitol in the country.

"In alluding to this, however, I do not wish, nor do I propose, to be misunderstood.

"Whether the capitol is entitled to the high praise which has been accorded to it or not, if, in its construction or furnishing, there has been any fraud or willful extravagance—which to my mind is almost the equivalent of fraud—surely there is no man who will not agree with me that those who have participated in or profited by such fraud should be met with prompt punishment, and also be compelled to make restitution.

"If elected governor, I promise you, fully realizing the responsibility resting upon me, that I will see that a thorough investigation shall be made of the entire question, and if such investigation discloses that any man or set of men have been guilty of wrong-doing in the abuse of their trust, or guilty of fraud or illegal profit in the furnishing of supplies, they shall meet with the punishment they surely, under such circumstances, would justly deserve.

"If, as I am informed, the money spent in furnishing the capitol was without specific itemized appropriation first having been made for the purpose, I would recommend to the legislature that in the future it shall be made unlawful to expend any such large amount of money without first having a specific appropriation made, based upon an approximate estimate of the cost.

"Any other course is in opposition to correct business principles and contrary to the safe, economic policy that should govern all expenditures of the people's money."

It Is a Noble Building.

Robert S. Murphy, the Republican nominee for lieutenant governor, in commenting upon this "issue," said:

"The new state capitol is one of the noblest buildings to be found within the limits of the country.

"There is not a man or citizen of Pennsylvania that can view that magnificent structure without a sense of pride, without a feeling of thankfulness that he is a citizen of Pennsylvania, and that this great state, with its population of seven million people, with its great wealth and material resources, with its reputation abroad as not only the keystone of Republicanism, but the keystone of the republic, is entitled to a building of that character."

In referring to the itemized statement of the expenditures in furnishing the new capitol, made by Governor Pennypacker and Auditor General Snyder, Mr. Murphy said:

"No man has ever heard the honesty or the integrity of a member of the board ever questioned, publicly or privately. I submit that before you decide this case in your own mind you must hear the testimony and you must analyze it, and I desire to say here that they themselves have furnished the testimony, upon which they are willing to stand or fall. The public statement of Samuel W. Pennypacker, under his own hand and seal, indicates precisely how that large sum of money has been expended, and it has been spent in equipping and furnishing that great capitol, in ornamenting it, in decorating it, and completing it, and I am not willing to take the uncorroborated testimony of our opponents that there has been any wrongdoing upon the part of the officials vested with the power of completing that work.

"But I say to you that I here express myself in complete accord with my colleague upon the ticket and that if there is any man or set of men who have through conspiracy or fraud robbed the treasury of the commonwealth of Pennsylvania in that undertaking, I say to you that every one of them should be thoroughly questioned, and if found guilty properly punished.

"The Republican party does not and never has stood for anything but what was right and proper in the administration of public affairs, and she is today as fair and as honest as ever."

CASTLE KEEPS AT IT

Nightly Demands Answers to Charges Emery Keeps Dodging.

MINISTERS GO TO HIS MEETINGS

Clergymen Want to Know More About Character of Man Who Links the Church With the Brewery.

Like a ferocious bull dog on the trail of a fleeing burglar, Homer L. Castle "keeps everlastingly at it" in his pursuit of Lewis Emery, Jr., his Democratic rival for the governorship.

There is no such thing as "quitting" in Castle's make up, and he certainly has kept Emery on the run from the very outset of the campaign.

Castle has been drawing immense crowds at many of his meetings.

He must be given credit for the fearlessness and persistence with which he is conducting his campaign. He is quite as severe upon the Republicans as he is upon the Democrats and the Lincolnites in his general criticisms, but while he has attacked the Republican party management, he has not found an excuse to say a single word of condemnation of Edwin S. Stuart, the Republican nominee for governor.

With Emery it has been different.

At almost every meeting he has something new to present, some new reason, some new argument why Emery should not be elected to the governorship. Wherever he goes he charges that Emery is not a fit man to be the chief executive of Pennsylvania.

He attacks him personally, as well as on account of his official and business record.

A significant feature of the Castle campaign is the keen interest that is being manifested in his canvass by clergymen of every denomination.

Ministers Listen to Castle.

Many ministers attend his meetings.

This in a measure may be accounted for by the fact that Mr. Castle and Dr. Swallow were responsible for the criticisms of Emery which brought forth from Emery his now famous letter in which he placed the brewery upon the same plane with the church, the hospital and the school.

In speaking at one of his recent gatherings on the subject of the attendance of clergymen at his meetings, Mr. Castle said:

"As soon as it began to be noted in the papers that ministers were not only attending our meeting, but were taking active part and interest and were appearing upon the platform with us, then the Emery people undertook to discount it by having their newspapers chronicle the fact that the ministers were attending their meetings.

"The newspapers stayed at least near enough to the truth so that they did not say that the ministers were taking any part or were approving of the Emery campaign, but simply that they were in attendance.

"There is perhaps no good reason why a preacher might not go to a barroom, a dance hall or an Emery meeting, simply to see what is going on and be able in each case to point out to his people the disastrous results of visiting or consorting with any one of the three. But the whole trend of the church in its declarations of hostility to the liquor traffic and to all affiliations with the brewery business are so clear and unmistakable that it can hardly be a thinkable proposition that the ministry of this state should become in any sense a partisan of Lewis Emery or those who attach themselves to him."

What Castle Wants to Know.

At every meeting Mr. Castle repeats his queries addressed to Mr. Emery, all of which that gentleman has up to date failed to answer.

He wants to know from Mr. Emery if it is not true that his immense fortune was made largely from "selling out" to the Standard Oil company and then re-establishing himself as a competitor in the oil business, only to again make a compact to start a new golden stream into his personal treasury.

He wants to know if it is not true that at this very time Mr. Emery has got a veritable "gold mine" in the Pure Oil company, which is ostensibly a competitor of the Standard, but which, in fact, has a very satisfactory and harmonious business arrangement by which both the Standard and the Pure Oil companies fix prices which make the oil consumers "easy marks" for both of them.

He wants to know if it is not true that there are at least two representatives of the Standard Oil interests on the board of directors of Emery's Pure Oil company.

He wants to know what Israel W. Durham, James P. McNichol and John M. Mack, the Philadelphia politicians, paid for their stock in the Pure Oil company, and what political influence, if any, they were to throw to the advantage of the Pure Oil company, or did they arrange a deal with the Standard?

He wants to know why Mr Emery goes about denouncing corporations for getting freight rebates from railroads, when he admitted, under oath, before the interstate commerce commission, that his company had received such rebates.

He wants to know why Mr. Emery devotes so much attention to denouncing the Standard Oil company's methods when it is charged that the Emery oil company falsified the tests of its oil, and the inspector's stamps, that oil that stood the test of only 110 was stamped as tested 150; that this was fraudulently done; that Mr. Emery's company reaped the largely increased profits of this fraud; that Mr Emery is or was practically the Emery Oil company.

He wants to know if Mr Emery still places the church, the schools and the hospitals upon the same plane with the brewery.

Letter to C. M. Lamb,

Monessen, Pa.

Dear Sir: Here's honesty for you. North Dakota has a pure paint law. Prof. Ladd, the state chemist analyzes a certain paint labeled "contains only lead and zinc and is strictly pure," and finds it no lead at all, a resinous oil, and benzine. It is, however, full-measure and contains no water.

That's like the man on trial for killing his grandmother; proved that he didn't set fire to the house.

No lead, but zinc and barytes, resinous oil, and benzine—"strickly pure lead and zinc paint!"

Pure paint is lead-zinc-and-oil; but that isn't all; there is such a thing as proportion and make. The strongest paint is Devoe.

North Dakota is doing a handsome thing in holding these confidence-people up to scorn. She gives their names as well as their works.

Yours truly,

AGED LADY DIED SUDDENLY.

Mrs. Louisa Martin died yesterday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, of asthma at the home of her step-daughter Mrs. Matthew Stoll, of Donner avenue. Mrs. Martin had only been ill a short time, and her death came very unexpectedly to her family and friends. She was sixty years of age, and was a native of Germany, where several living sisters reside.

The funeral will take place tomorrow at 10 o'clock. Interment will be made in Grandview cemetery.

TWO INJURED IN WRECK

An oyster train crashed into the rear of a freight on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, two mills above West Newton, at 5 o'clock this morning. Three cars and the caboose of the latter were wrecked and the cars being loaded with coal caught fire and are still burning. The engine of the oyster train was damaged considerably.

Traffic was blocked for two hours and the express from the East due in Pittsburg about 7 o'clock was held up. Three men, including the conductor of the freight, were injured.

Thomas Blacklin, engineer of the oyster train; severely injured about back; scalp lacerated.

J. H Hopper, brakesman of the freight; back wrenched and hips cut and bruised.

These were taken to the Cottage State hospital at Connellsville, but the conductor was able to be about and was not hurt seriously. Just how the rear-end collision occured is not yet explained.

Minney Will Get New Trial.

All of the papers for the appeal of the case of Wilbur Minney, of Belle Vernon, convicted of murder in the Fayette county court to the Supreme Court were forwarded by the Prothonotary Friday afternoon and it is expected that the matter will be taken up in the higher court on Monday.

Minney was convicted by two juries of murder in the first degree, for the killing of Mrs. Anna Derry, in the early part of the summer.

He should have been strung up long ago but of course as is customery in such cases they want to see how much money they can spend on him, and how much encouragement can be given to other criminals.

Sawed the Bars.

William May, a Charleroi glass worker, escaped from the lockup in Monongahela City by sawing the bars of his cell and breaking a window. His brother, John May, is under arrest charged with having furnished William with the saws. William May was held on a charge of larceny perferred by Mrs. Louis Huston of Van Voorhis.

SWALLOW SCORES AGAIN

Demands That Emery and Black Shall Meet Charges.

SCATHING REVIEW OF RECORDS

Prohibition Leader's Hot Shot Directed at Democratic Nominees For Governor and Lieutenant Governor.

Dr. S. C. Swallow does not propose that Lewis Emery, Jr., the Democratic candidate for Governor, shall be permitted to longer ignore the charges that have been made from time to time upon the stump by himself and Homer L. Castle, the Prohibition nominee for Governor.

He has reiterated these charges in another demand that Emery meet each and every one of them, and he says that he will persist in that direction until Emery shall be heard from specifically upon each of these allegations.

In a formal statement to the public Dr. Swallow, among other things, says

Facts Established.

In these two months' fight the following facts have been pretty thoroughly established:

That our party ran a narrow chance of becoming forever disgraced and its existence endangered by accepting Lewis Emery as its candidate; but fortunately discovered his true character in time to reject him.

That this has been and is destined to continue the dirtiest campaign in the history of the state, owing to the character of the man who is seeking promotion under the false pretense of being a reformer.

That he admits being interested in breweries; that he contributes to them as to churches, schools and hospitals; that he furnishes intoxicants to his family and his guests; that he drinks and treats at public bars; that his son is secretary and treasury of a brewery, and that the Elk county halls, who are largely interested in breweries, were the strongest factors in securing his nomination. Nor has he yet denied the allegation of several newspaper men that he was incoherently drunk in Philadelphia on the night of the Lincoln convention that nominated him, and was put to bed by his friends to prevent futrehr disgrace and scandal. A fact admitted to at least two witnesses at two different times by the Hon. Charles Emory Smith, editor of the Philadelphia Press, both editor and paper now fervently supporting Mr. Emery for Governor.

Emery's Oil Company.

It has been further established that Emery's oil company made, used and forged oil-barrel stamps, thus cheating the state out of many thousands of dollars and endangering the lives of oil consumers by palming off on them oil at 110 and 120 fire test that should have registered 150.

That at a time when it could have been prevented, there was admitted to partnership in Mr. Emery's oil business representatives of the Standard Oil Company, and that he thus became "cheek by jowl" with the Durhams, Macks, Murphys and McNichols, whom he affects to politically despise and to be fighting; just as he boasts of fighting Quay for 20 years, but also boasted in his Harrisburg speech that "we were good friends all that time." It was a sham battle for revenue only, as is his fight with the Standard Oil Company. He admits selling his oil in Germany at six cents or eight cents a gallon at a profit, and compels Pennsylvanians to pay 10 cents a gallon, thus following Standard Oil prices instead of competing with them. He said in a speech a night or two ago that Rockefeller would make a subscription to a church and advance the price of oil a penny a gallon with which to pay the subscription.

Now, while no one pretends to defend John D. and his methods, yet does not Mr. Emery make subscriptions to breweries and advance the price of oil with which to pay his subscription? He boasted at York of being rich. Did he not secure it largely by building oil refineries in pretense of competing with the Standard, only to voluntarily and repeatedly sell to them at enormous profits, leaving small individual operators who had tied to him wholly at the mercy of the merciless Standard octopus?

Secret Understanding.

And now there is accumulating evidence that there is a secret understanding with certain of the Standard Oil company representatives in the Emery Oil company that Mr. Emery should use the Standard as a "bogy" with which to frighten voters into electing him, while the Standard representatives in Emery's company are pledged that when once elected, their Governor shall co-operate with that great public robber in further humiliating the people.

It has been proven from the legislative record that Mr. Emery is not a friend of labor, as is shown by his vote both in the house and the senate against an eight-hour law and against the establishment of hospitals for miners and laborers.

It has become apparent from circulars sent out by the Anti-Sumptuary Leagen that not only the liquor forces of Pennsylvania, but of the whole country are focusing their funds in this campaign for the election of Emery and Black. The league argues that the Prohibition party and sentiment must be destroyed by destroying Castle, and that this can best be done in the election of Emery. That he is a safe man for their interests; that his committal to local option is based on its being in his own language "equitable," and that in private conversation he has declared that it would be iniditous to permit the people to vote out a business whose owners have property rights established and fostered by the Home laws. The circular further argues that if in an emergency the local option bill is passed and Emery is forced by his Lincoln constituents to sign it the league can easily defeat it at the polls. There is no doubt of their ability to do so, since the blood money of the whole nation would flow to the Keystone state in such a contest.

Hard Words For Black.

It has been established

That Jere Black, the corporation lawyer now stumping the state against corporations, though he denied it, took nearly $20,000 of the taxpayers' money of York county for collecting from a delinquent Democratic county treasurer about $73,000. He admits taking $18,500, but the books show nearer $20,000. A part of this he took without the consent of even the Democratic members of the board of commissioners. Now having denied that he took the money, and it having been proved on him, he stands convicted.

It is also now well established that Black first and without provocation, ignorantly repeated in one of his speeches, seven full-fledged falsehoods, furnished in a roundabout way by a derelict Methodist preacher, now in the employ of the state, concerning my court trial nearly 10 years ago and my church trial of five years ago, both of which grew out of my expose of the grafters of that day, in neither of which was I convicted, as he falsely alleged, but was in all triumphantly vindicated.

And he has willfully and maliciously repeated these falsehoods when he knew they were falsehoods, though he did not have the courage to accept my challenge and repeat them in his Harrisburg speech, when we were ready to arrest him, at a point where we could prove his language, if he denied the newspaper reports. Black has shown himself a skulking coward.

And the charge that he made in his York speech after the questions propounded to him there by the Prohibitionists are formulated by Republicans, which was followed by the signed statement, by the Prohibition executive committee, that the questions were not formulated as he said, brands the candidate for Lieutenant Governor as an untruthful man.

As to Emery's Associates.

Dr. Swallow, after refering in anything but complimentary terms to some of Mr. Emery's associates on the stump, adds

All around Mr Emery are the moral wrecks produced by the influence of his insincere and questionable life, hid under the mass of fake reform that begins and ends in self. He is to be pitied when 254 ministers of his home conference, where he is known, pass unanimously a resolution condemning his brewery sentiments and methods, and a two-third vote of the Pittsburg conference do the same at their session at Butler.

If ever the Republican party vaults into the reform saddle under a disguise, as the Democrats and Lincolnites have done, we shall again pay most attention to it, as we are now paying most attention to the Emery-Black fakes.
